

Introduction to Early Buddhism

“Buddhist Life / Buddhist Path”

a course based on the early discourses of the Buddha

instructor: Bhikkhu Cintita Dinsmore

12 weeks, starts Sunday, August 12, 2018

4:00 – 5:30, Sitagu Buddha Vihara

This course is offered twice a year in the dining hall of a Burmese monastery in Oak Hill (SW Austin), located at 9001 Honeycomb Dr., Austin, TX 78737.

There is no cost for the course and the textbook is offered at no cost. It is intended both for those new to Buddhism and for those seeking to understand how later schools relate to what the Buddha taught during his lifetime. It covers the range of the Buddha's teachings in a quick but comprehensive way supportive of life commitments, practice and further study.

More information: <http://www.sitagu.org/shortlinks/lifepath/>.

To register go to <https://www.meetup.com/Austin-Words-of-the-Buddha/>.

Email Bhante Cintita at bhikkhu.cintita@gmail.com.

